

K-Love has been a wonderful resource for us as a family. They keep us informed about seminars and events that are beneficial to my entire family and our community. It is a station that I can allow my child to listen to and not be concerned about the content. In fact, K-Love promotes the values and personal growth that makes our community a better place to live and makes us better people.